Observations... By the Editor

As usual the topic of pre-legislative discussion in the State, and one which arises every two years, is the liquor question. This is one issue which should be settled once and for all. There is as much liquor sold in Mississippi as in any other State of the Union, and the Mississippi Legislature has lacked the courage to legalize its sale. Instead of legalization we find the Legislature placing there on the Black Market tax which gives to many people the idea that they are immune from prosecution for the sale of liquor. Again the black market tax is all to the grafting law enforcement officer, and we find the state placing the stamp of approval and apparently condoning such practices . . . We are, and have always been, for the legalization of the sale of liquor, and we are thoroughly in accord with the sentiments of Senator-elect Howard McDonnell to place it on a local option basis . . . If, and when, such law is passed, there should be sufficient teeth in it so that the average dive could not exist. A commission should be set up to confront the sale, and provisions should be made for a tax of such proportions that any fly-by-night operator could not go into the business . . . The law should make provisions for the supervision by the sheriff, and clauses put into the law which would authorize the removal of the sheriff from office if he should fail in his duty . . . We are not critical, nor do we take issue with anyone who opposes the sale of liquor; but we contend that it is far better to have the sale legalized, than to have the present conditions continue to exist, for even though it may not be sold openly, as at present, it will be sold, and it is nothing more than a breeding hole of corruption for officers charged with the enforcement of the law . . . And if it is sold openly, it can be controlled . . . Greatest of all, there will be no pay off. A common sense view of the situation should be taken, and we should realize that there is as much liquor drinking in the so-called dry section of Mississippi, as there is on the coast and the delta section . . . Well do we remember the statement made by a state senator in discussing a bill to legalize liquor in Mississippi at one of the past sessions, when he said: "It is time for the people of Mississippi to quit staggering to the polls to vote dry."

Hold Suspect In Billups Robbery

Approximately $90 was taken from the new Billups Service Station on U. S. Highway 90 between Long Beach and Pass Christian around 12:15 a.m. Monday, November 19, and about six hours later a suspect was apprehended in Louisiana.

Three men were bound and left in a restroom by the neat appearing bandit who was armed with a pearl handle automatic pistol according to information furnished by the victim to the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol in Gulfport.

Employees were listed by the patrol as Thadious Grafton, station manager, West Beach Tourist Court, Pass Christian; a station attendant listed only as King; and John Kyte, a truck driver for the Gulf Lumber Company of Mobile who stopped at the service station while the robbery was in progress, according to Patrol Inspector Marshall Lumpkin.

About 1:30 a.m. the bound men were found by Private James Calhoun, 3409 Student Squadron, Keesler Air Force Base, who notified the state patrol office in Gulfport of the robbery.

An escaped Florida convict was apprehended in New Roads, Louisiana, by Louisiana State Troopers around 6:00 o'clock after he was injured in an automobile crash.

He was identified as Robert Dalton, 24, who gave Santa Rosa, Florida, as his address. He was first sighted by the Louisiana troopers driving an automobile which fitted the description of one involved in the Billups Station robbery, Inspector Lumpkin said.

According to Harrison County Prosecutor Gaston H. Hewes, two charges of armed robbery with a pistol are being filed against Dalton in county court.

State Patrolmen W. D. King and Archie Fairley, who went to the scene immediately after the robbery was reported by the airman, said the victims gave this account of the events:

A neat-appearing man drove up to the station in a 1951 maroon

Ford and asked for a road map. When the attendant went into the station for a map, the man followed him and covered Grafton and King with the pistol advising that "This is a stickup."

He opened the cash register and took the money which a later check determined was $89.33, according to the patrol.

The two service attendants were ordered into a rest room where one was forced to bind the other; then the robber bound the second attendant.

Kyte, operating a transport truck, stopped at the station during the robbery and he likewise was covered, bound with heavy cord and left with the other two men.

Approximately an hour later, Private Calhoun stopped at the station and sounded his horn. After there was no response, he got out and walked around the station and was attracted by the calls from the rest room, Patrolman Fairley reported. He freed the men and spread the alarm.

PLAN SEAFOOD SUPPER FRIDAY

The young people who make up Mrs. J. A. Hebert's Sunday School class at the Main Street Methodist church are sponsoring a sea food supper in the annex of the church Friday evening.

The responsibility of the medical advisory committee will be to advise the blood committee on professional and technical aspects of the blood program.

"I am delighted to serve with the Hancock County Red Cross Chapter in this vital National Blood Program. We in the medical profession have, in the past ten years, come to depend more and more on the use of blood and its derivatives in combating illness. Then, too, when you consider the great number of accidents of all types which occur in our community, the need for whole blood takes on added significance," Wolfe said.

"In those communities fortunate enough to have an adequate supply, the use of blood in surgery and in everyday practice of good medicine is commonplace. Therefore, thousands of lives have been saved, to say nothing of the relief blood has afforded suffering humanity. Now, I am happy to say, Hancock County may count itself as being one of such fortunate counties."

Hancock County is one of the many counties throughout the nation to participate in the Red Cross National Blood Program. Under this plan, blood will be voluntarily given by local donors when the Red Cross bloodmobile operating out of the regional blood center at Mobile arrives in Bay St. Louis at the Youth Center December 11.

Following the first visit of the mobile unit, the people of this community will enjoy the benefits of a constant supply of blood and blood products so essential for the relief of suffering and saving of lives.

Although the blood program is sponsored by the American Red Cross, it is essentially a community project. Dr. Wolfe pointed out, "Donors give their blood to others in the community who are in need of it through, not to, the Red Cross."

The program has the approval of local medical, hospital, and health authorities; and through the medical advisory committee, it will be under the control of local physicians at all times.

Mrs. J. S. Blaize and little daughter, Janet, were among the guests at the Columbia Lions Club meeting held in Columbia last week.

Janet entertained for the Lions naming all the states in the Union and their capitals. Janet, only four and one half years old, surprised the group by doing what few adults can do. Mrs. Blaize is the former Miss Hazel Kerger.

Observe National Education Week

A program in observance of American Education Week was driven at St. Joseph Academy Thursday, November 15, starting at 1:00 p.m. during which students and faculty members of local schools heard a panel discussion entitled "Unite for Freedom."

Brother William, S. C., principal of St. Stanislaus acted as chairman at both the discussion and the buffet supper later at the college dining hall. The Invocation was given by Rev. Edward P. Desmond, and a welcome in the name of the student bodies was given by Gerald Rooney, S. C., and Mary Helen Curran, S. J. A.

"A true educator must face the truth about his student's equipment and must acknowledge his shortcomings and assets," Rev. Father Erwin Bauer, S. V. D., of St. Augustine's Seminary told those present.

"Union in the family—Rampant of Freedom," was discussed by Mrs. R. Ziffle, the former Kate Allenham of New Orleans, and alumnae of St. Joseph Academy. Representative-elect Walter J. Phillips, alumnus of Bay High, discussed "Civic, National and International Unity—Key to Freedom."

A cornealian Mass was celebrated at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church at 8:00 a.m. Thursday by P. Rev. Monsignor Bene' of the Blessed Sacrament.

According to Father Bauer, secularism is a divorce between God and life and is the root of all our ills. "Fear out the root and get rid of the ills," he said.

the idea that cotton farmers should have 100 percent of parity, a thought that was scoffed at on state and national levels at the time. Today's cotton prices go back to the fight that Charlie O'Neill and other Mississippi agricultural economic pioneers started and carried to the national level and victory.

J. E. Stanford, executive secretary of the Kentucky Farm Bureau, speaking before the banquet assembly, urged Farm Bureau members to take a more active part in their farm Bureau organization and a keener interest in government affairs. He warned that socialist phases lead past socialism to bankruptcy and communism.

He called on farm people to set to it that the strictest economy is observed, and that every dollar we spend today is watched with economy and efficiency in mind—no matter what purpose it is spent.

Attending from Hancock County were James L. Tolar, assistant County Agent and Otho Rester, voting delegate; and Fitzhugh Lee.

In observance of National Education Week, the Bay St. Louis teachers were invited to an informal buffet supper at St. Stanislaus Thursday, November 15, along with the teachers from St. Joseph Academy and Waveland.

Bay High teachers were almost a hundred percent in attendance. Members of the different Mothers' Clubs and officers of the Bay Central P.T.A. were also present.

In the absence of the president, Brother Celsus, Brother William proved to be a wonderful host. He was assisted by a number of other Brothers who helped to make everyone feel welcome. A regular feast was enjoyed by all.

Some of the items on the menu were turkey ham, cheese, tea, ice cream and cake.

This, we believe, was one of the best ways for the educational leaders of Bay St. Louis to become better acquainted. Many ideas regarding school problems were discussed in small "get together" groups.

The faculty of Bay High wishes to express its appreciation to the faculty of St. Stanislaus for the fellowship that this gathering afforded.

BAY HIGH VS LUCEDALE

On Friday, November 16, the Bay High Tigers journeyed to Lucedale, Mississippi, where they suffered another defeat at the hands of the Lucedale Panthers for the score of 26-6.

The Tigers kicked to the Panthers, and, on the first play from scrimmage, the Panthers fumbled and Bay High recovered. The Tigers then marched to the first and their only score of the game. It came on a six yard plunge by Gerald Coludrovich. An attempted end run for the extra point failed.

The Tigers held Lucedale for a short time, but then their fullback captain broke loose for 12 yards and scored. A short pass was good for the extra point, score 7-6.

In the second quarter, the Panthers scored twice but both point attempts failed. Score at half-time, Lucedale 19, Bay High 6.

Baudry - Elliott Wedding Held

Miss Julie Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott of this city, became the bride of Allen Joseph Baudry of New Orleans, son of Mrs. Alice Baudry of LaPlace, Louisiana, and the late Roger Baudry, Saturday, November 10. The wedding was solemnized at a Nuptial Mass at the Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, New Orleans, at 9:00 a. m. by Rev. Father D. Couglin.

The bride, attired in a candlelight satin gown made with a form fitting bodice and a portrait neckline trimmed in applique lace, was given in marriage by her father. The sleeves of the gown, which ended in a point, were trimmed in the lace; and the full skirt fell into a graceful train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a Juliet cap of satin and lace, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Howard Duff, sister of the bride, and Miss Audrey Poolson, bridesmaid, wore off-the-shoulder gowns of aqua satin made with form fitting bodices and full length skirts. They wore Juliet caps of the same material and carried cascade bouquets of taffeta roses with corresponding shades of satin ribbon.

The groom had as his best man, his brother, Francis Baudry, and as groomsmen, Lloyd Polse, Ushers were Luke S. Elliott and Berges Hinzel.

Sgt. Howard J. Duff sang "Panis Angelicus," "Salve Regina" and "Ave Maria" during the Mass.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for the bridal party and immediate families. In the receiving line were Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Baudry, and the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. Hartman Thompson, of New Orleans.

For traveling the bride wore a plum colored wool suit with an orchid colored hat trimmed with a plum plume. She wore matching accessories and a white and plum orchid corsage.

The bride, a graduate of St. Joseph Academy and Hotel Dieu School of Nursing, is employed at the Veterans Hospital in New Orleans.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Leon Godchaux high school, Reserve, Louisiana, and Soule Business College. He is now attending night classes at Loyola university. He served with the United States Army during World War II and is presently employed in the analytical department of the California Oil Company in New Orleans.

Following a short trip, the couple will return to New Orleans where they will make their home.

Rotarians Hear Librarian Speak

Miss Eleanor Gralow, extension librarian for the Mississippi Library Commission, addressed the Rotary Club Wednesday concerning the great need of libraries in all cities and towns.

"A public library plays an important role in a town," she said. "If you want information on a war, science, on Einstein, or the movies, you go to the library for information... You can not have informed citizens unless you educate them, and the library is one of the best means of education. Mississippi has 82 counties, and there are 25 counties without libraries."

Miss Gralow added that if someone went into business—such as a store—a large neon sign showed the public where the store is situated, but there are seldom neon signs to guide the public to a library."

"If any of you gentlemen hearing me were to open a business," the speaker continued, "you would open it in the path of the public. If you have a library you certainly want it the path of the public and not out of range of the people.

"I find," Miss Gralow said, "that people get what they want—they find a way to get what they want, and the best things of life are not free."

At the close of the talk, it was suggested by Rotarian Joseph Schaff that the matter of securing a better location for the local library be discussed at the club's next open meeting.

Miss Gralow spoke at the invitation of Mr. Schaff.

More rural Mississippi homes will receive new telephones this year than during any other of Southern Bell's 64 years in the State... By the year's end over 100 new rural telephone projects will have been completed, 10 of the State's 13 new rural switching units will have been placed in service, and over 7500 rural homes will have been supplied with telephones for the first time.

These figures indicate the kind of progress of which Mississippians as a group should be proud. In addition, each of these new subscribers must have that individual sense of comfort, convenience and reassurance brought about by the presence of a telephone in the home.

In these days of high wages and increasing prices it is costing us more every day to extend and improve our facilities just as it is costing us more to maintain good telephone service. Every dollar we pay out buys less than it used to.

Now it may not be easy for you, as a telephone user, to measure how these increased costs should affect your telephone bill. What your telephone is worth to you, however, is another matter. You can measure that. Put that yardstick against your monthly telephone bill and see if you don't agree with the vast majority of telephone subscribers that your telephone is worth far more than it costs always.

PASS CHRISTIAN NEWS
DR. WILLIS G. CLARK RESIGNS
AS RECTOR OF TRINITY CHURCH

By MRS. JOE ALLEN

Dr. Willis Gaylord Clark, who has served for the past five years as Rector of the Trinity Episcopal Church of Pass Christian, read his letter of resignation to the Wardens and Vestry of the church November 12.

Dr. Clark said: "The time has come now when I feel convinced that the church needs a more active Ministry than I am able to give. I have passed my 70th year and I am increasingly feeling the handicap of advancing age."

The Vestry, through Senior Warden, Edgar Bohn, expressed sorrow over Dr. Clark's decision but voted to accept the resignation which becomes effective January 1, 1952.

Dr. Clark is beloved by his congregation and by all people of Pass Christian who know him. Mrs. Clark, also is greatly appreciated for the wonderful work she has done, and is still doing in Sunday School, Altar Guild and as an effective advisor among the people of the Church and Community. The Clarks know personally every confirmed member of Trinity Church and visit frequently those of the pastorate.

The Clarks plan to make their home with Mrs. Wyatt M. Jones, Sr., of Macon, Mississippi, a sister of Mrs. Clark.

Dr. Clark, a native of Mobile, Alabama, attended Barton Academy in Mobile and Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Alabama. He was graduated from the Theological Seminary of the University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee, in 1907. He was ordained Deacon in the Episcopal Church in 1907 and Priest in 1908 in St. John's Church of Montgomery, Alabama.

On July 31, 1907, he was married to Miss Lottie Ivy Hibbler, the daughter of the late Edmund and Ivy Hibbler of Nokubee County, Mississippi.

During his years in the Ministry, Dr. Clark has served in Geneva and Dothan, Alabama (1907-1908); Assistant Minister of St. John's Church, Montgomery, Alabama (1908-1909); Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Eutaw, Alabama (1909-12); Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Birmingham, Alabama (1912-1915); Rector of Trinity Church, Asheville, North Carolina (1915-25); Rector of Saint Andrew's Church, Tampa, Florida (1925-31); Rector of St. Peters Church, Charlotte, North Carolina (1931-46).

When Dr. Clark retired as active Rector of St. Peter's Church at Charlotte, he was elected Rector Emeritus for life.

At the request of Bishop Duncan M. Gray of Mississippi and the vestry and congregation of Trinity Church, Pass Christian, Dr. Clark answered the call to become Rector and took charge January, 1947. The church had, at that time 171 confirmed members. Since then the church has lost through death, and removed 44 members and has gained through confirmation, and additions by transfers, 100 members, making the present number of confirmed members 227.

There have been 47 baptisms and 7 confirmations during Dr. Clark's ministry. The Sunday School now has 87 resident members.

Both Dr. and Mrs. Clark will long be remembered in Pass Christian for their loving service and devotion to Trinity Church and its people.
